This year, the MACVPR keynote speaker is Karen Lui.

Karen Lui has a BSN and Master's Degree in exercise physiology from UW-LaCrosse. She has directed hospital-based cardiac rehabilitation programs and cardiology practice-based cardiac rehabilitation programs for 25 years.

Since 2006, Karen has been employed by GRQ, LLC, a health care consulting firm in Washington, D.C. as a legislative/regulatory analyst and currently serves in that capacity for the American Association of Cardiovascular and Pulmonary Rehabilitation (AACVPR).

Prior to working for GRQ, she served on the AACVPR Board of Directors, including President and chaired several committees, including Health & Public Policy Committee, Professional Certification Commission, and currently chairs the AACVPR-MAC Liaison Task Force.

MACVPR organizes an annual meeting to inform attendees of vital information in the cardiac and pulmonary rehabilitation field. Speakers are selected to cover emerging topics and share their knowledge in their cardiovascular and pulmonary specialties.

In addition to the vast knowledge that is shared, the conference is also a great way to network with professionals from other programs around Montana and Wyoming.
